UNITY BAPTIST CHURCH

UBC TODAY
VOLUME 2, ISSUE 1
JANUARY 2008

Our desire is to make a difference, one family at a time.

What awaits us?

We're at the starting gate of a new year. What will it hold for us? Only God knows. Yet if God knows, why not try to discover his plan for us each day?

We should carry on a daily dialog with God. Following his lead is always interesting and challenging. And much of the time it's filled with wonder and joy.

I remember the story of a small boy who prayed to God at the end of a fun, interesting Monday: "It's been a wonderful day, God. What do you have in mind for Tuesday?"

What does God have in mind for you in 2008? Keep in touch with him, and you'll enjoy the trip around the sun.

Begin a Journey of a lifetime...

You can Read the events of the Bible as they occurred—chronologically, historically or from beginning to end. You can also Read the Old Testament and New Testament together. Your knowledge of the Old Testament will be enhanced by what you read simultaneously in the New Testament.

See UBC Today Editor for a copy of these daily readings or online at: <http://www.rbc.net/odb/odb.shtml>

Pastor's Message for the New Year

Happy New Year!!!

It is had to believe that another year has come and gone. It passed by so quickly, where did the time go? How did you do on the resolution(s) that you set for last year? If you re like most of us, you probably did not do to well. As a matter of fact, you probably had fallen short of your resolution after a month. Why do we struggle so hard with keeping those resolutions? Intentionality!!! If we do not have a plan for keeping our resolutions, then the chances of us keeping them are slim to none. But, if you want to be successful then come up with a plan that includes the Lord. Remember that He tells us in John 15 that without Him we can't do anything. As you enter this New Year, plan big and include the Lord and watch how successful you will be in keeping your resolution(s). God bless and keep the faith!!!

Celebrating the life of

In January 2003, a white Southern preacher, Dr. Thomas Lane Butts, gave a talk in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, to Christians who had gathered to honor and celebrate the life and ministry of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Dr. Butts had been one of the courageous white pastors in Montgomery, Alabama, who strove to end segregation and other injustices, and he paid a price for his stand. An eight foot cross was burned on his lawn. Many church members called for his removal, which eventually happened. Dr. Butts, who knew Dr. King personally, had this to say in his speech in Pine Bluff:

"My friends, we are here today to honor and celebrate the life and ministry of a man who touched the life of this nation more than he ever dreamed:

When he was but a young man the leadership of the civil rights movement was thrust upon his shoulders. He never sought it, but he accepted it with prayerful humility. He rose to meet the challenge.

"His philosophy of love and nonviolence never varied. There was in him no bitterness or resentment, though he had ample provocation for both. The forces of hate and evil never provoked him to use tools from the devil's workshop to accomplish the mission to which he had been called. He began his ministry in the spirit of Christ and Gandhi, and to his dying day this was his guiding light.

"Meeting Dr. King reinforced my resolve to be actively involved in the civil rights movement. I celebrate his life, and thank God for him."
