

FATHERS OF FAITH

Fathers do amazing things for their families, but the greatest gift our dads can share with us is their faith in God.

ebster's define habit as a settled tendency or usual manner of behavior. We are a sum total of the habits that we have formed. As we head into summer, I want to encourage you to develop good habits so when crunch time comes, you will be able to glorify God with your attitude and actions.

ne habit I want to encourage you with is to begin each day with the word of God. In any race, you need to have a good start. If the start is bad, the likelihood of you being victorious is greatly diminished. Remember the Lord's admonition to seek first His kingdom and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto to you." It takes 21 days to develop good habits. Have you started on yours today?
